A GROUP OF SCHOOLS FOR ADULT EDUCATION

201 T Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

"Making two opportunities grow where none grew before."

"Mark Hopkins at one end of a log and one eager learner on the other end is ample ground to constitute a University."

—James A. Garfield.

"The main difficulty of the race question in America does not lie so much in the actual condition of the blacks as in the mental attitude of the whites; and a mental attitude not based on truth can be changed more easily than actual conditions. The burden of the question is not that the whites are struggling to save ten million moribund people from sinking into hopeless ignorance, poverty and barbarity in their very midst; but that they are unwilling to open certain doors of opportunity and to accord certain treatment to ten million aspiring, education-and-property-acquiring people."

—James Weldon Johnson.

"The crying need for this machine age is a conservative principle in our educational systems, a keen insight on the part of the teaching fraternity as to the age-old, but ever fresh value of straight thinking and noble living as a contagious influence from teacher to taught,—getting a clear perspective for the machine so that the pressure for mass production of machine men and the testing and measuring in the hectic hunt for super-men will not lose sight of ultimate essentials in the making of MEN and the building of a cultural civilization."

—Anonymous.

Lift Ev'ry Voice and Sing

FULL CHORUS

Congregation Please Rise.

Lift ev'ry voice and sing
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has brought us.
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has taught us.
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who hast by Thy might
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world,
we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand.
True to our God,
True to our native land.

Words by James Weldon Johnson

Music by J. Rosamond Johnson
